We read in a recent Manila paper that the Secretary of State was about to issue an order prohibiting Spanish Consuls and Vice-Consuls from abandoning their post without first obtaining leave from the Ministry for so doing."

We find from recent Manila files that an earthquake was experienced in the north of Luzon a few days after a similar shock was felt at Yokohama, on the 27th ult. at 8.30 p.m. As reported by the Jesuit Father in the Meteorological Observatory of Manila, the shock at Luzon was followed by various undulations, decreasing in intensity, its direction was from S. W. to N. E., and it continued for about 8 seconds.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW.

5th March, 1880.

Returning notice of our Shamen Flower Show, the following hurried gleanings will serve to mark somewhat distinctly the preponderance of the few exhibitors who measure out the difficulties of a period of very unpropitious weather, and thus, so far, assured the continuity of the annual competition that we may fairly hope to be promoted by more favorable atmospheric conditions in future years.

E. J. 7th March.—I conclude to send a complete list of the exhibits with the names of the winners of prizes as a more satisfactory permanent record than my own somewhat casual notes would be; the foregoing introductions of the 3rd and 5th instant sufficing for a general description.

I may here say, in parentheses, that since the 3rd we have been favored with four fine days; a high barometer and a temperature of 53 to 72 degrees.

in addition to them, so that all signatures are needed before a shipment, large or small, can be made. This is in addition to former restrictions, and is certainly uncalled for by past experience. This, however, is but one of the instances in which the Government has been too far-reaching in its interference with the business of the Chinese community. The Chinese themselves, but harmful from their position aiding them in their desire to support Chinese obstructive measures.

The annoyance caused to the owners of the Cadis is an instance in point, the troubles connected with which are not apparently quite settled yet; and the obstacles thrown in the way of Mr. McNeill's steamer are but another. For some years Mr. McNeill has been compelled to anchor on the north bank of the river, in a position where it has been impossible to obtain cargo without the enforced payment by the shippers of extra expenses besides the freight. These expenses have been the subject of much discussion, and it is not creditable that foreigners in the employment of the Customs service should be found assisting in the practical evasion of treaty stipulations.

Friendly remonstrance has been in vain in these and many other lesser difficulties; and we have in consequence been forced to air our plaints in the public Press, in the hope that our griefs may meet the eye of those in authority.—N. O. D. News.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithography, photography, woodcuts, &c.; should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelago and the "Far East" generally. A most detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number.
Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a résumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters, and attention is also paid to the Review department.

Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), or as also three queries which though not for information, furnish news or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1879, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and entertaining Review. It is a sixty pages, bi-monthly, repository of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address: China Review, Hongkong.—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

Fraser's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:—"This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which would be a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been devoted to late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the pen of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among which a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's Shi King by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and originality of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature in the Review, it is to be hoped that the precedence and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the career of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered to Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also as to be found the greatest and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,— from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese,—consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-objective in tone—is almost limitless. "It is on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest while on the other deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners.
Like English journals it contains Editorials with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.
